

lets make

Puppetry Workshops

Fun and interactive sessions using simple, everyday materials.

*Krazy Kitchen Kreation*s

Everyday kitchen utensils such as spoons, whisks, potato mashers, spatulas, tongs, and more are transformed into puppets which then can be brought to life in the puppet theatre.

An ideal workshop for vacation groups, schools, libraries, or parents and children working together. Explore and grow your child's creativity and imagination.

www.letsmake.com.au

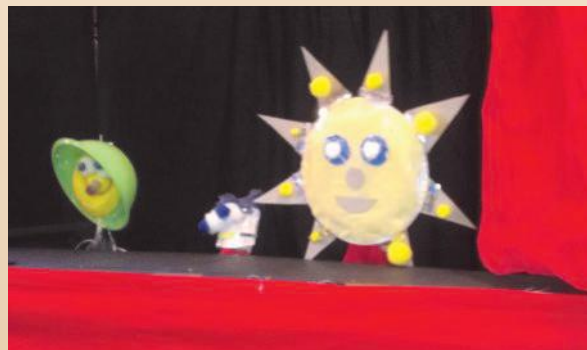

lets make

All materials and a puppet theatre are supplied for use during the workshop. Puppets can be kept by the participants.

Workshop length: 90 to 120 minutes approx.

5 years upwards.

Cost: $240 up to 20 participants then $12 per head thereafter.

www.letsmake.com.au

lets make

Contact us

Sean Manners
m: 0412 294 779
e: sean@letsmake.com.au
w: letsmake.com.au
p: PO Box 148, Westbury,
Tasmania, 7303

$20M Public Liability, and Working with Vulnerable People card.

Puppets made from kitchen utensils

www.letsmake.com.au