Zac 'n' the Box.

All the ingredients for a laughter filled show combine together in this gentle but funny hand puppet performance.

Zac the clown is left a magic box to look after by his uncle the Wizard.

At the same time he is trying to organise a cake for Mr. Punch's birthday.

Add a French chef, a swagman, the wizard, and stir thoroughly. Watch as the magic box causes mix-ups, muddles and magic.

Walk-about puppets

Zany characters that interact with the crowd at your event.

Suitable for all ages

Our unique walk-about puppets engage with the crowd and create interest wherever they roam.

These puppets add colour and movement, create conversation and make people smile.

When you book one of our glove puppet shows they tag along or they can be booked to come along to an event to wander and interact with the public on an hourly basis.

You never know what zany character might come wandering through the crowd with Pelican Puppets walk-about puppets.

Patch the Pirate is only a pup and is learning all he can about Pirates from the crowd.

He likes to hear what young pirates to be, know about the language of Pirates.

Being a dog he digs for treasure but he has to find it first so quite often sets out with his treasure map asking for help along the way. X marks the spot!

Duncan "Hotstuff" Dragon has lost his fire and is collecting the hottest recipes in town to help him regain it.

Being a hot dragon he feels the cold an awful lot, especially in Tasmania, and so needs warming up with tales of anything to do with heat and has a penchant for other peoples scarves.

Pelly the Pelican is a very cultured Pelican but likes nothing better than a feed of fish from the crowd.

His catching skills will never get him a place on a cricket team though!
